Jennifer's Biography:

I am a 38 year old USDF Bronze, Silver, and Gold Medalist who has trained with a number of top professionals including Courtney King-Dye, and Lendon Gray. I was a working student for Lendon Gray and became her barn manager and assistant trainer from 2005-2007 and worked in a similar capacity for Courtney King Dye from 2007-2012. I am currently running my own training business, JDM Dressage, LLC in Millbrook, New York during the months of May-Oct and Florida from Nov-April. Since I began my own business, and even before, I have consistently worked with top US and International trainers including: Robert Dover, Jan Ebeling, Debbie McDonald, Steffen Peters, Charlotte Bredahl, Juan Matute, Kathy Connelly, Bent Jensen, Scott Hassler and Claes Bierenbroodspot and more.

Jennifer has trained a number of horses from to the FEI level including Don Romeo (pictured above), owned by Betsy Tyler, who Jennifer trained from 4-12 yrs old. In 2016 they were invited to ride in the Challenge of the Americas Prix Drill Team. Jennifer is also one of the select riders rated 5 stars by Centerline Scores.
